

FINAL REVIEW:

What does the statement "all Scripture is inspired by God" mean?

List the four possible sources of final authority indicating any problems/limitations with each.

-1-

-2-

-3-

-4-

Explain what the following phrases (from II Timothy 2:15 and 3:16,17) mean:

for teaching

for reproof

for correction

for training in righteousness

adequate, equipped

handling accurately

Define and explain the term "hermeneutics."

Outline the process by which God communicates His will to mankind.

List three pre-requisites to understanding God's Word

-1-

-2-

-3-

How would you explain the presence of so many different interpretations of the Bible?

List four factors that support a literal approach to interpreting the Bible.

-1-

-2-

-3-

-4-

Distinguish between a plain-literal statement and a figurative-literal statement.

State the "golden rule" of interpretation

State the three principles of literal interpretation

-1-

-2-

-3-

Explain how to determine what a word means.

How can one discover how a word is used?

List four suggestions for fixing the precise meaning of a word in a given context.

-1-

-2-

-3-

-4-

Explain the statement "word meanings are determined by the words which surround them."

Why is it true that a word has no fixed meaning except in a context (generally speaking)?

Name the three contexts of each statement in Scripture.

-1-

-2-

-3-

Explain what the statement "comparing Scripture with Scripture" means.

Define a dispensation

What three factors indicate a change in dispensations?

-1-

-2-

-3-

Describe six facets of a book's historical situation, noting the importance of each.

-1-

-2-

-3-

-4-

-5-

-6-

List seven steps to studying the Bible.

-1-

-2-

-3-

-4-

-5-

-6-

-7-

Explain how a person can know when he is familiar enough with a book or portion of the Bible.

Differentiate between book's theme, subject, and purpose.

How is understanding the setting of a portion of Scripture important?

Explain what is involved in "observing" a passage of Scripture.

Outline the four steps in applying Scripture to one's life.

-1-

-2-

-3-

-4-

Distinguish between-

-Interpretations

-Precepts

-Principles

-Promises

-Applications

What factors must be taken into account in "claiming" a biblical promise?

What two activities aid the assimilating of the truth of Scripture into one's life?

What is meditation? Explain how to meditate.

Why does implementing the precepts and principles of Scripture aid in assimilating the truth of the Bible into one's life?