

The Destiny of Demons

There will be an expanding demonic activity in our present age (1 Timothy 4; 2 Timothy 3). Apostasy will grow as we get closer to the rapture and more and more demonic inspired false teachers will surface (2 Peter 3).

After the Rapture will come the Great Tribulation. The Antichrist will be active on earth deceiving the nations, Satan will eventually be thrown to the earth and men will reject God in spite of the evidence of the Rapture. Men will sin even more as God's common grace will be lifted —the current ministry of the Holy Spirit will end.

During the Millennial Kingdom demons will be confined, but will be released for a short period after the thousand year reign of Christ on earth. After this, demons will be thrown into the lake of fire for ever.
