

Absolutes

Matthew 19-20

In Matthew 19:21-22, the young man went away instead of accepting Jesus' invitation to follow Him. Why do you think he was grieved? What emotions may have been his if he had chosen to obey the Lord?

The young man went away instead of accepting Jesus' invitation to follow Him. Why do you think he was grieved? What emotions may have been his if he had chosen to obey the Lord?

Now read Matthew 20:25-28. How did rulers and great men negatively impose authority over others in Jesus' day? What do they do today?

What is the Christian's goal in relationships?

What did Jesus do to serve and to give His life at Calvary? What did He do to serve and to give His life before going to the cross? What is He doing along those lines now?

Will you follow in His steps? Please do so. What actions can you take to be a servant, to give your life for many? What habits can you develop which would result in such obedience to this passage?
