

The Ultimate Question

Revelation 20:11 - 21:6

What segments of this passage are most significant? Why?

What portions of this glorious scene are most important? Why?

Are you certain you have a relationship with God through faith in the Gospel? Why do you so answer?

As you think about the weight of these matters, are there any changes you wish to make in your priorities, goals or ways?

In what people in your life have you observed saving faith? What is their destiny? Offer thanks to the Lord for His act of grace in causing new life in these lives.

Who do you know who has so far rejected the Gospel? How important is it that one day their hearts toward God change?

Can you imagine any in the Revelation 20 group who would regard their lives as fulfilled, their pursuits as worthy? A few years into eternity, what might their view of life achievements be?

Would any in the Revelation 21 group wish they were not there? What thoughts would run through your mind if you are there on that day?

What impact on you, from this study, would honor God? Pray, asking for God's help to cause it to happen.
