

Submitting to Governing Authorities

Romans 13:1-7

Are evil governing authorities also established by God? How can this be?

List all the reasons given for why we should submit to the governing authorities?

What areas does Paul apply to these principles? How can a person of apparent low character possibly be honored?

Write down at least three specific areas that being subject to governing authorities applies.

Which area are you deficient in?
