---

What is the intended outcome of distressing trials? How can our faith be proven by trials?

---

---

---

Give thanks for the difficulties in your life. Give thanks for the opportunity to prove your faith and bring praise, glory and honor to Jesus Christ.

---

---

---

Should we expect to rejoice even in distressing trials? Why is this possible?

---

---

---

Express your love for Your Lord and your faith in Him, amid the storm.

---

---

---

What does God intend to be the result of difficult times?

---

---

---

Resolve in your heart to live according to the truths of this passage. In relation to the present storms in your life: love the Lord, believe in Him, and use this present difficult moment to prove your faith. Bring honor and glory to the Lord.
