

Loving Others

Matthew 5:46-48

Many people commend themselves when they express love. Why is there no reward for loving those who love you?

When have you loved only people you perceived as loving you? What is Jesus' view of this?

Consider the connection between 5:46-47 and 5:48. How are we to be perfect as our heavenly Father is perfect?

What opportunities to love those who don't love you are before you now? What could you do to show love?
