

The Christian's Destiny

Revelation 22:1-5

If Jesus Christ is your Lord and Savior, His blood has atoned for your sins. If so, you are saved by the grace of God and this is your certain destiny (1 Peter 1.3-5). As you meditate on these 5 verses in Revelation, offer your thanks and praise to the Father and to the Lord Jesus Christ for this upcoming inheritance.

---

---

---

Take a few minutes to really consider each aspect of heaven described here. What important facts do you notice?

---

---

---

Paul said, "I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us." Romans 8.18. Does examining God's description of heaven alter your view of your present circumstances? How so?

---

---

---

How important is the assurance of your eternal destiny? What impact does this have on life now?

---

---

---