

Be Anxious For Nothing

Philippians 4:4-7

It is a fact that you can rejoice in the Lord always. What does that say about who God is? What does it say about His relationship with you?

Rejoice in the Lord!

What do other people know from observing you? What will you change to instead project a spirit of rejoicing in the Lord and that He is near to you?

What reasons are given, in this passage, to be anxious for nothing?

Will you choose to not be anxious in any situation? If so, express your commitment to the Lord.

In prayer and supplication, let your requests be made known to God. Include each situation for which you may be anxious. Also offer thanks for the Lord's response and His faithfulness.

Give thanks for God's grace: not only hearing your prayer and being near, but also replacing anxiety with peace.
