

When and Whom To Marry

1 Corinthians 7:39-40

What does Paul mean when he says "in my opinion" (cf. 7:25)?

Why does Paul say a woman is happier if she remains single? Is this true for everyone?

Can a woman marry anyone she chooses? What is the restriction and why is it important?

Beyond the restriction of marrying another Christian, can we marry whom we wish or should we expect God to tell us who to marry?

What are the problems with expecting God to tell us who to marry?

As you consider the freedom to choose, what principles can you think of that will make for a wiser choice?
