Sermon Notes for November 4-5, 1995

"A Christians Duty in a Hostile World"

1 Peter 8:7-11

What do we learn about duty in this passage?

The incentive "The end of all things is at hand..."

"end" (TELOS) - fulfillment, consumation

The "end of all things" - Is the day when the living as well as the dead who are in Christ are gathered together with Him and given their avoided glorified bodies (I Thess. 4:13-17)

"at hand" (ENGGIKEN) - Communicates imminency or in other words there are no other events that we need to look for before the "end of all things"

We must therefore live in expectancy
