

Valley Bible Church – Sermon Notes

Sermon Notes for May 7-8, 2005

"Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind"

John 9:8-12

We can maximize our impact for Christ when we put God's work on display.

Putting God's work on display provides us the greatest opportunity to point people to Christ.

The first aspect of the healing in John 9:1-12 was the problem (John 9:1).

The second aspect of the healing in John 9:1-12 was the purpose (John 9:2-5).

The third aspect of the healing in John 9:1-12 was the power (John 9:6-7).

The fourth aspect of the healing in John 9:1-12 was the perplexity (John 9:8-12).

When the work of God is displayed in a person's life, it will not go unnoticed (John 9:8-9).

Valley Bible Church – Sermon Notes

People observing the work of God in the life of another person will be moved to ask questions (John 9:10).

People observing the work of God in the life of a Christian will be moved to ask questions because that work is so incredibly spectacular (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Though we should not necessarily expect our transformation to be as spectacular as Paul's, it still should fall within the parameters of what people would consider spectacular.

Are you, as a professing believer, putting God's work on display in your life in such a way that when you point people to Christ, they will be interested in what you have to say?
