“Worship in Heaven”
Revelation 4:6-11

Remember that in Revelation 4:1-11, John provides us with a three-fold description of a future worship service in heaven.

First, remember that John describes his summons to heaven (Revelation 4:1-2).

Second, remember that John describes the scene in heaven (Revelation 4:3-7).

Remember that John provides us with 5 different observations of the heavenly throne room.

Observation #1-Remember that John describes the One who is on the throne (Revelation 4:2-3).

Observation #2-Remember that John describes what he sees around the throne (Revelation 4:3-4).

Observation #3-Remember that John describes what was coming out from the throne (Revelation 4:5).

Observation #4-Remember that John describes what is before the throne (Revelation 4:5-6).

Observation #5-John describes what is in and around the throne (Revelation 4:6-7).

John provides us with a detailed description of what these four living creatures look like.

First, notice their eyes.

Second, notice their faces.

Third, notice their wings.

Third, John describes the songs in heaven (Revelation 4:8-11).

John hears a song of worship proclaiming God’s attributes (Revelation 4:8-9).

1. They praise God for His purity!

2. They praise God for His power!

3. They praise God for His perpetuity!

John hears a song of worship praising God as Creator (Revelation 4:10-11).

1. First notice their deeds of worship (Revelation 4:10).

2. Second, notice their declaration of worship (Revelation 4:11).

My hope and prayer is that we take advantage of the here and now, and that we will be driven to worship in spirit and in truth regardless of our circumstances, all the time longing for this future time in heaven.
