Sermon Notes for February 21, 2010

The Worthy One
Revelation 5:1-14

First, we see a search for the worthy one (Revelation 5:1-4).

Why is this search conducted? John tells us that a worthy one is needed to open a book with seven seals.

What is the problem that is presented? A problem ensued as no created being was found, who was worthy to break the seals and open the book.

What was John's reaction? John responds to this news by weeping greatly.

Second, we see the selection of the worthy one (Revelation 5:5-7).

The Worthy One is described as a lion.

The Worthy One is described as a root.

The Worthy One is described as a lamb.

Third, we hear songs to the worthy one (Revelation 5:8-14).

Hymn #1—A hymn of redemption.

Hymn #2—A hymn of worthiness.

Hymn #3—A hymn of blessing.

My hope is that each one of us will be motivated to humble ourselves before God and exalt Him as the only one who is worthy to be praised.
