“Personal Benefits of Grace Giving”
2 Corinthians 9:8-10

What are the specific personal benefits of grace giving based on the words of Paul in 2 Corinthians 9:8-10?

The first personal benefit of grace giving is sufficiency (2 Corinthians 9:8).

The phrase “all grace” is very broad in scope and would include every form of grace that could possibly be available from God whether material or spiritual.

Grace givers reaping the bountiful harvest of God’s grace will “always” and “in everything” experience the “all sufficiency” of God’s grace making it possible for them to give cheerfully and without fear in whatever circumstances they may find themselves.

The word “sufficiency” (AUTARKEIA) literally means “contentment.”

May God give us the grace to trust in His promises so that we will in the blessedness of the sufficiency He will provide be able to give generously and cheerfully to those in need without fear.
