“Facing the Challenge of Parenting”

Observing the text

Read Deuteronomy 6:4-9 and make as many observations as possible.

What is the significance of the phrase, “the Lord is one?”

What does it mean to love God with all our heart, soul and strength?

What does it mean to bind God’s commandments as a sign on your hand and as frontal on your forehead?

What does it mean to write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates?

Applying the sermon

Is helping your children to enter into the blessedness of those who love and serve the Lord your greatest priority as a parent?

If this is your greatest priority for your children, are you satisfied with the way you are presently communicating the truths of God’s Word to them in their everyday lives?

Is there anything in your life at this present time that needs to change in order to better serve your children?
