“The Greater Glory of Paul’s Ministry”
2 Corinthians 3:7-8

Observing the text

Read 2 Corinthians 3:7-11 and make as many observations as possible.

What is the “ministry of death?”

What “glory” accompanied the ministry of death (Exodus 34:29-35)?

What was the “ministry of righteousness?”

What glory accompanied the ministry of righteousness?

Applying the sermon

Why should individuals who are trusting in their good works for salvation be afraid of coming into the presence of God?

When you consider the possibility of yourself coming into the presence of God, what emotion does that produce?

How can someone come into the presence of God with confidence and with boldness?

What thoughts fill your mind when you think of individuals who are trusting in good works for salvation knowing that one day they will have to face God’s judgment?

What do you believe that you need to do about this in light of these thoughts?
