Worship: The Key to Living the

Abundant Christian Life

Psalm 19:1-6

Observing the text

Read Psalms 19:1-6 and make as many observations as possible.

What is the universe telling us?

What is the significance of the Psalmist's words when he said, "and their utterances to the end of the earth?"

Why is the "sun" given such prominence in these verses?

Why did the Psalmist change his focus from what the created universe is telling us in Psalms 19:1-6 to God's word in Psalms 19:7-14?

Applying the sermon

How do the heavens declare the glory of God?

How does the Bible declare the glory of God?

When we have the opportunity to view the glory of God in the heavens or to consider the glory of God as explained to us in the word, how should it move us in our spirit to worship God and to worship Him alone?

In light of what the heavens and the Bible are telling you about the glory of God, how are you presently responding?

If you believe that you are not responding appropriately, take a moment to confess your sin to God, so that your worship of God might be pleasing to Him.
