1 Samuel 15:1-37

Observing the text

What are the instructions given to King Saul in 1 Samuel 15? Are they clear?

How does Saul do in carrying out those instructions?

What is God's response to Saul's follow-through of His instructions? What is Samuel's response?

How does Saul handle Samuel's evaluation of his follow-through?

How would you describe Saul's repentance at the end of this chapter?

Applying the sermon

How does our view of God's direction effect our obedience?

How valuable is partial obedience to God?

What things do you sacrifice for God to make up for other areas of disobedience in your life?

What often causes us to be slow in admitting our own sin?

When we disobey God's Word, what are we saying about our view of His direction?
