Revelation 15:5-8

Observing the text

Read Revelation 15:5-8 and describe this new vision that John sees.

How does the scene of Revelation 15:5-8 relate to the previous scene in Revelation 15:1-4?

What sanctuary is John referring to in Revelation 15:5-8?

How are these seven angels dressed, and what is the significance of their attire?

What plagues are referred to by these seven bowl judgments (cf. Revelation 16:1-21)?

Applying the sermon

After reading Revelation 15:5-8, what aspects of God's character are you moved to praise Him for?

After reading Revelation 15:5-8, how does God's future judgment move you to be thankful in the here and now?

In light of Revelation 15:5-8, how are you moved toward godly character?

How are you presently involved in the mission of the church to make disciples? What are you presently doing to communicate the truth of the gospel so that others might have a blessed hope in Christ as opposed to facing future judgment?
