The Manner of Missions
1 Peter 2:11-12

Observing the text

How are we aliens and strangers?

What is our relationship to the flesh?

Why must we keep our behavior excellent?

What is the function of our good deeds?

Applying the sermon

What are some practical ways that we can remember our identity as aliens and strangers?

How are you specifically making war against your flesh?

How should we respond when people slander us?

What role do our good deeds play in the work of missions or evangelism?

How are you doing at letting your light shine before others?
