Hebrews 12:25-29

Observing the text

Who is speaking from heaven and how is he speaking in verse 25?

Who is the “we” that will not escape if they do not listen in verse 25?

How will those who are listening know when they are listening?

Those who are not listening will not escape from what according to verses 26 and 27?

What kingdom will those who are listening receive in verse 28?

How should those who receive the kingdom respond according to verses 28 and 29?

Applying the sermon

Why is it so important for professing believers to “see to it” that they are not refusing to listen to God when He is speaking to them in His Son?

Are you presently seeing to it that you are not refusing to listen to God? And how is that effort now manifesting itself in your life?

If we believe that we, as professing believers, are listening to God speak to us in His Son, how should that assurance impact us? And have you personally seen that impact?

Why is striving to live a life of worship a natural outflow of listening to God speak to us in His Son?

Are you presently striving to live a life of worship and how is it manifesting itself in your daily life?
